I was delighted to have worked with many fantastic people.

Lada Brůnová, the one who „Escaped from Comic Strips“, prepared the illustrations of my children using selected photographs. Studio „Zašivárna“ („sewer’s hideaway“) with their embroideries was a true inspiration, but even more so was cooperation with the grannies from all over the country who made them. For the embroidering grannies it is not only about extra income, it is their room for self-realization, a source of joy, confidence of being useful, confidence in their abilities.

One of the grannies - Marie Šmerdová from Hlučín near Opava, used Lada’s illustrations to make brilliant embroideries, in black with golden details...

This is how this sofa GOLDEN KIDS came about...

Karin Zadrick made a collection of wonderful photos for this project.

In the realm of childhood – mine, that of my parent, grandparents and ,later, of my children during holidays – at Sadská, on a meadow amid century-old oak trees...

Few women would mind having at home a sofa with their kids on it.
And if you want to, you can make embroideries yourself
with the help of embroidering grannies.

My big thank you goes to:

Žofie, Julie a Matyáš - inspiration
Lada Brůnová / Utekla z komiksu - illustrations
Zašívárna a Marie Šmerdová - embroideries
Tomáš Dittrich - product photographer
Jakub Horský – Upupæpop - graphic design
Dukase s.r.o. – print
